LOCAL NEWS.

Brief Mention.
 Buy a new house—R. E. Baldwin.
 The public schools reopen to-morrow morning after a vacation of a week and a half.

The New Year was watched in and the old one out last night in several of the local churches.

Manure specially composted for top dressing lawns. Connecticut Concrete company, 49 Church street.

Judge Callahan is improving daily and his condition is very favorable for his recovery. It is expected he will be able to sit up a little in a few days.

The annual New Year's dances of the Arions, Harugaris and New Haven Turners were held last evening in their halls. All of them were strictly private, for members only. The members of the Harugari society received presents. After 10 o'clock dancing was indulgued in until a late hour.

At the Y. M. C. A. rooms this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock the class work in the gymnasium will be shown by some of the members of the association. All those interested are invited to come and see the girls, as well as the new amusement room, which adds greatly to the attractiveness of the association. Some of the other rooms have been carpeted newly and the association begins the new year with brighter rooms, as well as prospects.

A number from New Britain will accompany the New Britain polo team to this city this evening, where they will play with the Elm City team.

The New Britain players will be Griswold, Morey, Sullivan, Turnbull and McGrath. George Fenton will accompany the team as a substitute.

Yesterday's New Britain Herald says:
 "H. L. Kimberly of New Haven, who has been bookkeeper in the Corbin Cabinet Lock company for the past two years, has severed his connection with the firm. Mr. Kimberly will be missed by his large circle of friends which he has made in this city. He will return to New Haven to-day."

Rev. Dr. Harwood delivered a very brilliant and scholarly historical address at Trinity church last Sunday morning, which beside possessing an important local interest is a contribution to the Episcopal church history in this country of rare value. The "Courier" will publish the address in full to-morrow.

A BIG DEMAND.

Opening of the Stoddard Course Ticket Sale.
 The sale of seats for the John L.
 Stoddard lecture course began yesterday at the Hyperion ticket office. Since Saturday night there has been the usual line of speculators, who purchase seats for big attractions either for themselves or for patrons.

Charles S. McGilvray, who had first place, purchased fifty tickets for choice seats. Other large buyers were J. Ratner and D. S. Garvey.

Among those who have engaged tickets are Dr. Sage, Henry Trowbridge, William E. Barnett, Charles Root and Frederic B. Thompson.

New Haven Post Office Receipts Increase.
 Postmaster Beach of the local postoffice yesterday completed the complication of statistics concerning the amount of business done during the past five years and finds that the stamp sales for the past six months will exceed by $10,000 that of any previous similar period. The sales amounted to $99,035, which according to Postmaster Beach's figures will bring the receipts of the fiscal year up to $215,000, an increase of about $25,000 over last year.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

A Young Man Tired of Life—His Work

With a Razor.
 Henry Duffy, a young unmarried man, attempted suicide yesterday by cutting his throat with a razor.
 Duffy is employed at the Reynolds' bolt shop. He had been drinking heavily and yesterday morning was not at his work. About 7 o'clock he went over near the Quinnipiac river in Fair Haven and into Konold's coal yard and was there seen to draw a razor across his throat. Blood gushed forth and several bystanders attempted to catch him. He ran away, however, and could not be overhauled until Officer Poronto was notified. The officer joined in the chase and soon caught the man and took him to the Grand avenue precinct, where Dr. Call attended him. His wound is painful, but not dangerous. Duffy boards at 33 Chapel street.

GOOD SKATING.

Splendid Skating on Lake Saltonstall—Good on Lake Whitney—Sleighting on the Avenue.
 All of the lakes in this vicinity were crowded with skaters yesterday, the ice having frozen over Sunday three or four inches thick. Lake Whitney held its customary gay throng and Saltonstall, hitherto comparatively unused because of its distance from the city and lack of conveyances, but now brought so near by the electric cars of the New Haven street railway, was also well covered with skaters. The lake was as smooth as glass and affords excellent chances for good skating.
 Whalley avenue was filled with sleighs all day yesterday, several fast horses being put on their mettle. A number of fashionable turnouts were seen.

PERSONAL NOTINGS.

Miss Hettie Bradley of this city sang at a production of "The Messiah" in Baltimore, and scored a grand success.
 M. H. C. Atwater is an old New Haven boy, a former resident of St. John street, near Hughes place, years ago.
 He was a very popular young man here, and is held in very pleasant remembrance by many friends here.
 Mr. Atwater is a resident and orange grower of Waldo, Fla., and has remembered some of his old friends here with a fine sample of the golden fruit grown on his plantation, and which for size, sweetness, flavor and delicacy can hardly be surpassed. Mr. Atwater's grove produced splendidly this year, a deserving result for intelligent care. The best of his crop is yearly sent to this market, through Messrs. Stoddard, Kim-bery & Co., and is much appreciated by buyers. It is to be hoped that his plantation escaped the blighting cold wave which, as is recorded in another part of this paper by a New Haven correspondent in Florida, has wrought terrible havoc with the orange crop of the state.

Major Frederick Townsend, a brother of Hon. James M. Townsend, who was recently stopping for a time at the New Haven house, has gone to St. Augustine, Fla., where he usually passes the winter months.

AT BANQUET HALL.

The St. Alloysius T. A. B. Entertainment and Fair Last Night—The Society's Coming Fine New Building.

A large crowd attended the St. Aloysius T. A. and B. entertainment and fair in Banquet hall last night. The entertainment included excellent work by Dale Armstrong, the man of many voices, who amused the large audience with his ventriloquism and mimicry.
 Martine, the famous fantasist and hand shadowgraphist, made fun for the crowd. He is a genius in his line of work. Dancing is a feature of the evening's entertainment. The Mannhelm orchestra furnished music. The program to-night will include Dale Armstrong and Martine, also dancing.
 The society will parade to-morrow (Wednesday) night. There are forty prizes for chances. Every holder of a season ticket has a chance on $10 in gold. The proceeds of the fair go toward the building fund, which is now about $3,000.

A lot has been purchased opposite the Second regiment armory for the building, which will cost about $25,000. The ground will be broken about April 30.

Concordia's Dance.

The second grand annual ball given by the Y. A. R. Concordia society was held in old Union armory last night.
 The grand march was led by S. Maresca and Miss Louise Simone, followed by seventy-five couples. Music by Professor R. Russo; prompting by Professor M. Del Greco.

A. O. E.

The twelfth annual soiree of Court Pride of New Haven, No. 639, A. O.
 E. of A., was held in Germania hall last night. A large crowd was in attendance. The Second Regiment orchestra furnished music. Professor Coleman prompted.

Handsome Home for Yale's D. K. E.
 Delta Kappa Epsilon, one of the most popular junior societies at Yale, is soon to have a handsome new chapter house which, when completed, will be second to none in the country. Anson Phelps Stokes is in charge of raising the necessary funds, and there has been $5,000 subscribed already. The chapter house is to be located on York street on the site of the society's present building.
 The new building will cost between $30,- 000 and $40,000.

Knives and Cuts.

Esposito is the surname of two Italians who were arrested by Officers Hyde and Allan last night. The officers found them fighting near the corner of George and State streets. At the police headquarters one Italian, who gave his name as Cosmo Esposito, had a large knife concealed in his pocket, and the other, Paquette Esposito, had several cuts on his hand. Both were locked up.

Arrested in North Haven.

A Swede, aged twenty-six, named John Anderson, was arrested yesterday in North Haven and was locked up last night in the Grand avenue precinct.
 He is charged with the theft of a gold watch from the George H. Ford company's jewelry store. It is thought that he is guilty of other offenses.

MALLEY-NEELY & CO.

New Haven, Tuesday, Jan. 1, 1895.

The weather to-day—Likely to be fair.

TELEPHONE NO. 33

Store Closed Tuesday.

To the beholders of 1895—Greeting: We wish you all a Happy New Year! It seems to us that business conditions and the signs of the times were never more favorable for the confident expectation of a happy new year. The final flourish which the Christmas season of 1894 put upon trade prompts this belief on our part.
 There may be different conceptions of happiness, but no one will dispute that to be employed, to be well fed, well clothed, well housed, guarantees a sort of happiness which all want to experience.

The prices charged for the necessities of life play a vital part in a person's thrift or thralldom. This fact inspires us to not only wish you a Happy New Year, but to persistently try and contribute to your earthly happiness by whittling down shopping expenses to the lowest point consistent with self-preservation, which has been styled
 "heaven's first law."

That we are leaders in this respect gratifies, but doesn't satisfy us. You see room for improvement. So do we. Advantage shall be taken of that opening. The result will be to do better this year than ever before. Aside from the business aspect of things, no little effort will be made to add attractions temporary and permanent,—thus increasing the present popularity of the big store as a point of interest where one may pleasurably and profitably while away leisure time.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The following officers were elected last night by Relief lodge No. 86, I. O.
 O. F.:

Noble grand, George S. Knollmeyer; vice noble grand, Fred N. Reed; secretary, R. J. Bunce, treasurer, James W.
 Tabb.

The officers will be installed next Monday night, January 7.

WASHINGTON CAMP.

The following officers were elected in Washington camp No. 8, P. O. S. of A., last night: Past president, Frank S.
 Hamilton; president, George B. Morris; vice president, Frederick S. Snow;

M. of F., George G. Blackman; recording secretary, E. I. Wildman; financial secretary, John B. Clemmons; inspector, M. J. Bassett; outer guard, Alonzo Rerrick; chaplain, I. N. Covert; trustee for eighteen months, Nicolas Herman. The installation of the above officers will be next Monday, January 7.

It was decided that about 150 to 200 men will attend the institution of a camp in New Britain, January 10. The party will leave here by special train at 7 p. m. on that night. The arrangements for Washington's birthday are taking definite form by this order in conjunction with the other patriotic orders of the city. The exercises will be held in the Hyperion on the evening of February 23.

WASHINGTON COUNCIL.

Washington council No. 7, O. U. A.
 M., election of officers: Councilor, E.
 F. Johnson; vice councilor, L. B. Sperry; recording secretary, Theodore C. Hastings; assistant recording secretary, F.
 Seibert, Jr.; financial secretary, O. F.
 Jewell; treasurer, Frank Brown; inductor, E. P. James; examiner, N. Dorman; inside protector, W. E. Morgan; outside protector, J. E. Parmelee; trustee, G. F. Hutchings.

The Jepson Testimonial.

The sale of seats for the Jepson testimonial concert was very large yesterday.

Are You Ever Annoyed

by a buzzing or roaring sound in your head? Have you difficulty in hearing distinctly? Are you troubled with a continual dropping of mucus, irritating the throat and causing you to cough? Is your breath unpleasantly affected and accompanied with bad taste? Is your hearing less acute? If so, you have catarrh and should at once procure a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, the best known remedy. The Balm will give instant relief.

It cures it.

Great Weather for Ulsters!
Great Ulsters for the Weather!
